FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Wednesday, May 20, 2009

The PDCA Board of Directors is pleased to announce the appointment of Richard Greene as our new Chief Executive Officer. After an intensive selection process, Richard stood out as the best candidate to lead PDCA into the future.

Special thank you to the CEO Search Committee members that included Paul Corey, Gary King, John Lanzillotti, Mike O'Brien, Dave Ryker, Jim Anderson and committee Chair David Siegner.

Richard's background includes over 14 years of association management, three of those years managing a statewide construction trade association. He has earned the prestigious Certified Association Management designation from the American Society of Association Executives. Richard has an MBA and an undergraduate degree in accounting.

Richard will be relocating from the Chicago area to manage PDCA operations at our St. Louis national headquarters. He is committed to upholding the standards and quality of our 125 year old association

Please welcome Richard to the PDCA family when you have the opportunity. We look forward to his energy and enthusiasm as we continue to grow and strengthen this great organization.

PDCA Board of Director

David Jones, Chairman
